

Camille Crandall Berrion

PROVO—Camille Crandall Berrion, age 89, died May 24, 1993 at her home in Provo.

She was born September 29, 1903 in Spanish Fork, Utah, daughter of Myron Newton and Agnes Lewis Crandall. She married Glen M. Berrion September 6, 1927 in the Salt Lake LDS temple. He preceded her in death May 19, 1982.

She attended Provo City schools, and graduated from Brigham Young University. She taught English and drama at Utah High School in Vernal. After their marriage, she and Glen lived in Vernal before moving to Provo for a short time. In 1935, they moved to Brigham City, where they resided until her husband's death.

While she lived there, she was a member of the Civic Improvement Club and served as its president. She also was active in the DUP. She was active in the LDS Church, serving in such capacities as Brigham City 1st Ward YW-MIA president, South Box Elder Stake Relief Society president, and the Brigham City 1st Ward Relief Society presidency. She was Mother of the Year in Box Elder County in the early 1960's. She enjoyed traveling world wide with her husband, especially to Lions International conventions.

After moving to Provo in 1982, she was a member of the Fine Arts Club. The last three years of her life, she enjoyed reading to sight impaired residents of Cove Point Retirement Center.

She loved being with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Camille is survived by two sons and one daughter, Robert C. Berrion, Merino Park, Calif.; Dr. Paul C. Berrion (Georgia), Ogden; Marilyn B. Davis (Roy J.), Provo; 11 grandchildren; and 13 great-grandchildren. Preceded in death by four brothers, Glen N. Crandall, S. Lewis Crandall, Grant L. Crandall, Fred L. Crandall.

Funeral services will be held Thursday, May 27, 1993 at 11 a.m. in the Berg Drawing Room Chapel, 185 E. Center St., Provo. Friends may call at the Mortuary, Thursday, one hour prior to services. Interment: Salt Lake City Cemetery, (310 No. Campus Ave.), 4th Ave. and N Street. N 5/25
